

Invertebrate Website Timeline

Lisa Peck

Homework: Research & typing info/ paragraphs (done at home) will be check & graded daily.

Classwork: Creating the webpages is to be done during class.

1. pasting your emailed info/ paragraphs into your webpages
2. locating images, saving them into your folder, & then inserting into page
3. creating titles using flaming text
4. adding animations and sound effects to webpage

Day	Due @ beginning of class	Done during class
Mon.	at least 5 highlighted websites textbook highlighted	classification page related links page images located: for structure/ anatomy pg for digestive system pg for examples pg
Tues.	emailed: intro paragraphs emailed: structure descriptions emailed: digestive system info	home page structure/ anatomy page digestive system page begin examples page images located: for circulatory system pg for repro. system pg for nervous system pg for examples pg
Wed.	emailed: circ. system info emailed: repro. system info emailed: nervous system info	circulatory system page reproductive system page nervous system page work on examples page images located: for cool facts pg for importances pg for examples pg for examples pg
Thurs.	emailed: importances info emailed: cool facts info	importances page cool facts page complete examples page
Friday	any additional info, images, etc.	-additional info, images, sounds -proofread each page (grammar/ spelling) -preview website in a browser -attach website folder contents to an email -send email to lpeck@shorecrest.org